An Italian Tried for Killing a Schoolboy.

TWEED AGAIN IN COURT.

Important Decision Relating to Taxpayers.

The Madison Avenue Paving Assessments.

THE NEW GRAND JURORS.

The City Marshals and Sheriff Controversy.

In the Court of Common Pleas, General Term, Chief Justice Daly and Judges Larremore and J. F. Paly on the bench, a formal order was entered gesterday in accordance with the recent decision of the Court in the case of George W. Niles. The Supreme Court, General Term, on February 3. since, and that he has no right to practise in any at the State courts.

In the suit brought by Eugene Kelly, the banker, against the Mariposa Land and Mining Company, and which had been placed on one of the Circuit calendars in the Superior Court, motion was made yesterday before Chief Justice Moneil, in Superior Court, Special Term, to have the trial of the case postponed till next term. This as urged on the ground of the absence in California of a material witness. The motion was strenuously opposed by Mr. Kelly, it being slaimed that the other side were not acting in good faith, and that this was a mere subteringe for delay. Judge Monell said he must decide upon the papers before him, and granted the motion.

The government, some time since, obtained a judgment for $17,000 against Joseph Black, Michael Grau and Joshua D. Miner, on a distiller's bond. A motion was made yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, before Junge Wallace, to set aside the indement, on the ground that the attorneys, who represented the defendants when the judgment was obtained, were not authorized to appear. Decision reserved.

KILLING A SCHOOLBOY.

Thomas Tassino, a young Italian, with a look of bard crueity in his immobile face, was placed on trial yesterday in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Barrett, on a charge of causing the death of Robert Pratt, a boy five years old, by striking and kicking him. The lacts of the case as set up by the prosecution, admit very brief telling. On the 26th or last May the accused had telling. On the 26th of last May the accused had his fee cream cart at the corner of Ninth street and First avenue, and at noon, as the boys came out of the Ninth street achool, some of them threw stones at him, and being enraged, he caught the deceased by the neck, knocked nim down and kicked him, producing subsequent death. The prisoner was represented by Mr. Benjamin F. Russell, and Assistant District Attorney Lyons conducted the prosecution.

William Francis Pratt, a brother of the deceased, seven years old, was the first witness called. He seven years old, was the first witness called. He told a very clear, straightforward story for so young a witness, corroporating the statement given above. He said his prother threw no stones, but they were both quietly going home from school. John Keace, a boy aged eleven, attend-ing the same school, and who witnessed the us-sault, told the same story; as also did other school ing the same school, and who witnessed the assault, toid the same story; as also did other school companions.

Houser Pratt, the father of the boy, and Elizabeth Pratt, his mother, were placed on the stand, but their testimony was unimportant.

Dr. Henry Heirties testified that he was called in to see the boy Robert Pratt; he was iying on a lounge in a somnolent condition; he treated him, and in his medical opinion the boy died of inflammation of the brain.

Dr. MacWhinney, Deputy Coroner, made a postmortem examination of the deceased. He gave the cause of death as meningitis produced by injuries ne had received.

The prisoner next took the stand and testified that he was eighteen years of ag and had been in this country fourteen mother; on the 26th of May last he lived at No. 69 Baxter street. He was arrested near Fourteenth street on the 25th of May and was locked up; did not know what he was arrested for at the time; he was informed a few days after his arrest of the charge on which hed anything whatever to do with the killing of the accessed. The Court then adjourned till this morning, when the trial will be resumed.

TWEED AGAIN IN COURT.

Occasionally the fact is brought to public notice dam M. Tweed to recover $11,000,000 alleged to have been fraudulently obtained by him from the aty treasury in connection with the building of the new Court House. The suit was brought in the name or the Board of Supervisors. It is now claimed that the only proper way under the con-solidation act to prosecute the action is to bring the suit in the name or the Mayor and com-bring the suit in the name of the Mayor and commonaity. A motion to make this change in the prosecution was made yesterday in Supreme Court, Lambers, occore Judge Donohue.

Mr. Willard Bartiett opposed the motion. He insisted that the consolidation act, under the authority of which the change is asked, is unconstitutional, his reasons for the same being unconstitutional were that it underthook to transfer without its consent the entire property of the county to another corporation. If the act is constitutional he urged further that the Board of Supervisors had no standing in court since all rights had been taken from them. He argued further that the code does not authorize such an amendment. If the amendment was authorized he claimed the right to serve a new answer, setting up the defence which would arise from the change of the parties.

Mr. Wheeler H. Peckham in a brief answer urged that this was not a transier of rights, but a consolidation of two corporations, the oid city and county, into a new corporation. In regard to a new answer the defendant was entitled to put in a bushel of them is he wished, provided they were name prof tune, so that there might be no change in the date of issue or any delay in the trial.

Alter hearing the argument Judge Donohue

After hearing the argument Judge Donohue took the papers, reserving his decision. An important feature in connection with the argument that upon the decision will outbites depend similar applications pending in similar suits brought against Connoily, ingersoil and the other "Ring" associates of the great ex-Boss.

IMPORTANT TO TAXPAYERS.

A decision, embracing questions of importance to taxpayers, was given yesterday by Judge J. F. Daly, of the Court of Common Pleas, on an ap-plication of James R. Whiting and others, to vasate a sale of property by the city for non-payment of taxes. The decision was embodied in the tollowing opinion, which we give in full :-

The property of plaintiff sold by defendants for non payment of an alleged tax mereon, levied in 1869, was not described in the Record of Assessments, nor in the Receiver's book for the year 1868. In 1868 the plaintiff's ancestor owned certain land under water in the East River, immediately land under water in the East River, immediately fronting a bulkhead belonging to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, east of First avenue, between Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets. The property assessed by the city appears by its records of assessments of taxes in 1898 to be a "water front and bulkhead." This was no designation or description of planniff's property, there being no bulkhead and water front east of First avenue, octiveen Chirty-first and Thirty-third streets, except that belonging then and now to the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company. The land under water, if it were the proper subject of assessment, was not assessed in the name of any owner, and the assessment was therefore defective. (Waiting vs. Thomas, 23 N. Y., 251, 51.) In respect of the tax of 1869, it appears that a bulkhead was constructed in that year by the plaintiff's ancestor. The description in the textbooks of "water front and bulkhead" clearly designates the kind of property taxed; but as to all the property except the "water front and bulkhead on the south side of Thirty-second street," the The property is taxed in the name of no owner. As to all the property, without exception, there is no tax imposed except upon "bulkhead and water front," and bulkheads are not taxable (Boral vs. Mayer, 2 Sanders, 552), nor were laines under front," and bulkheads are not taxable (Boral vs. Mayer, 2 Sanders, 552), nor were laines under troot," and bulkhead are took taxable in 69, viz.:—The land filled in by him between his new bulkhead, erected in that year, and the old bulkhead, erected previously by the Farmers' Loan and Trost Company—was not described or designated on the books or maps of the assessfronting a bulkhead belonging to the Farmers' ment, and no tax levied thereon. (Taiman vs. White, 2 N.-Y., 701). Nevertheless, the assessments on the books in both years—1808 and 1869—are a cloud on the title of the plaintiffs, although invalid, and they were entitled to relief in equity (Laws of 1870, chap. 381, sec. 4; Lemmon vs. ine Mayor, Common Pleas, 1874, unreported). The relief prayed for in the complaint should be granted.

PAVING MADISON AVENUE. Thomas Agnew, as did a good many others for that matter, objected to paying an assessment for paving Madison avenue. Application was made some time since to Judge Westbrook, in Supreme Court Chambers, to vacate the assessment. This application was based on a previous decision of natiure to advertise in any one of the Corporation papers before the ordinance was framed was fatal in respect to the assessment. The Corporation Counset insisted, however, that the act of 1872 ourset this detect, inasmuch as it declared that no assessment previously made should be vacated for any omission to advertise. Judge Westbrook gave yesterday quite a lengthy opinion in the case. The gist of it is that the Legislature passed an act in 1859, assolutely promibiling the passing of such an ordinance as the one out of which has arisen the present action; that such ordinance then has in reality no existence, and is void; that the Court cannot put like into nothing, and that, inasmuch as re minio nihil fit, the motion to yacate the assessment must be vacated. tailure to advertise in any one of the Corporation

THE NEW GRAND JURIES. The composition of the grand juries is an im portant element in the prosecution of criminal offenders. Before Judge Donohue, in Supreme Court, Chambers, the grand juries were drawn yesterday for the next term of the courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Sessions, Douglas Taylor, Commissioner of Jurors, assisted by Deputy County Cierk Gumbieton and Under Sheriff Cumming, conducting the drawing. From the names given below it with the seen that some of our most prominent citizens are on the list. The following is the list of the Oyer and Terminer Grand Jury:—David J. THE MARSHALS VS. THE SHERIFF. Judge Joachimsen, of the Marine Court, in special Term. has delivered a lengthy and very exhaustive opinion as to the rights of the marshals of the Marine Court in the execution of judgments issued by the judges of that court as against the claims of the Sheriff, that all judgments shall be directed to him or his specials for execution. The opinion discriminates between such judgment as by statute shall be solely given to the Speriff and those which, emanating from the Court, may be executed by their officers or city masshals, and on this point holds that a city marshal has the same right in regard to the taking of personal property as any sheriff. This, it will be seen, somewhat conflicts with Judge Davis' ruling.

Davis' ruling.

Judge Joachimsen in his opinion—the points of which are only given—holds:— First-That a junior judgment creditor can attach a prior judgment and execution only on the ground of actual fraud.

prior judgment and execution only on the ground of actual fraud.

Scond—ince the set of 1874, relative to Marine Court (reptember laws 1874, p. 733), a judgment of this Gourt can be enforced only after filing a transcript in the County Clera's office, and a regular execution must be in the form prescribed by the code of procedure.

Third—An execution on a judgment not so docketed and not in the form prescribed by the code is irregular.

Fourth—A junior judgment creditor cannot be allowed to avail himself of the objection. This right belongs to the judgment debtor only.

Firth—An irregular execution may be amended in every respect on such terms as the Court may enforce.

Sixth—city marshal has the same rights in regard to the taking of personal property as any sheriff.

A RATHER "QUEER" CASE.

About a week ago information was received at the United States Secret Service Bureau, in this city, that a man named Daniel Coffee was trying "shove" counterfeit money. Detective Kenock was detailed to work up the case, and on going with the boy who gave the information to the place of meeting agreed upon by him and Coffee, found that Coffee knew him. He therefore hid in a doorway and sent the boy to see Coffee. The former went up to Coffee, and snatching the money from him ran off with it. Coffee was arrested and was to-day orought before United States Commissioner Shields; but there being no evidence against him he was discharged.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT. REVENUE STAMPS ON CIGARS-OFFICIAL CER. TIFICATES.

Before Judge Wallace. Some time since Mr. Frederick De Barry imported a quantity of cigars, and the Collector, after placing revenue stamps upon them, charged Mr. De Barry twenty cents per 1,000 for so doing. This, he claims, was done under an act of 1799, which provides that the Collector shall receive twenty cents for every official certificate given twenty cents for every official certificate given. The money was paid under protest, and suit has been brought to recover it. The act of June 20, 1868, says that the importer shall place the stamps upon the cigars, while they are in the cus ody of the officials, and cancel them, and under this the plaintiff claims the Collector cannot collect the twenty cents. The case came up yesterday before Judge Wallace, but was adjourned until next week.

SUPREME COURT-CIRCUIT-PART 3. SNOW SLIDING FROM A ROOF. Before Judge Lawrence.

Captain Waish, in January, 1871, while passing No. 91 Water street, was struck on the shoulder by a mass of snow sliding from the roof. He was laid up, as he alleges, six weeks on account of the injuries he sustained. He brought suit against Mrs. Jane C. Mead, the owner of the house, for $10,000 damages. The case has already been tried once, but resulted in a disagreement of the jury. A second trial was begun yesterday. The decence is that this is leased property; that a clause in the lease compels the tenant to keep the premises in order and make all needed repairs, and that there was no negligence on her part. The trial will probably be concluded to-day.

SUPREME COURT-SPECIAL TERM. CURIOUS DISPUTE AS TO PROPERTY.

Before Judge Van Brunt. Thomas H. Young married a daughter of a Mr. Muller, who on his death left her and three other children real estate in this city valued at $120,000. Mrs. Young died, and a suit has ensued as to the claim her husband has to her share of the property. The case was tried yesterda, in this Court, On the one side it was claimed that Mrs. Young had a stillborn child, and on the other that the child lived a short time after its birth. The testimony was very conflicting, and the Court took the papers, allowing the counsel to submit written arguments.

MARINE COURT-PART 1. LITIGATION GROWING OUT OF A JORE.

Beiore Judge Aiker. Silverman vs. Steiner. - About a year ago a gentieman in this city, by way of a joke, sent to a riend, through the mail, a counterfeit $50 bill. The recipient, without quite making up his mind whether he was in luck or not, put away the bill in a bureau drawer, where it lay undisturbed for some time; but, unfortunately for the parties in this action, it was discovered by a servant, abstracted from its depository and subsequently intrusted to an acquaintance to make some purchases with. In this connection it lound its way to the fancy store on Eighth avenue which the plaintiff carried on for his wife. The customer, eatter making purchases, presented the counterfeit bill, but, not having sufficient money on band, Mr. Silverman ing sufficient money on hand, Mr. Silverman started out to get change, and after two or three unsuccessid attempts inally come to defendant's lager over saloon on the next block. He testifies that Mr. Steiner at first reused to change the bill, but that upon Mrs. Steiner recognizing uim as doing business in the neighborhood he changed his mind, asking it it was good, to which plaintiff replied that he had got it from a customer, and hot to change it if he was not satisfied; that thereupon the bill was changed and he returned to his store. He further says that a day or two after, while in the midst of a religious ceremony, his house was visited by a detective, who, scarcely giving him time to get his hat, carried him before United States Commissioner Osborne, where he was detained several hours, but sub-equently discharged, after arrests had been ordered and executed in the case of almost every one who had been universunate enough to see the counterfelt. For plaintiff's arrest and detention he brings this action, laying his damages at $1,000. The defendant contradicts the plaintiff as to the interview at his saloon, testifying that when he asked plaintiff if the bill was good he said it was as good as gold, and he wished he had more of them. It came out in the course of the trial that a suit was hegun by the defendant here against Mrs. Silverman to recover back the $50, but before a hearing was had the money was paid over. The Court charged the jury that "want of probable cause!" was the essential ground of the action. If they believed that the arrest was made with malice and without probable cause they must find for plaintiff, and they did so.

MARINE COURT—CHAMBERS.

MARINE COURT-CHAMBERS. ASSAULT ON BOARD OF A BRITISH VESSEL.

Before Judge Spaulding. Peter Thomquist vs. Albert W. Wade. was a seaman on the British bark Grace, of which the defendant was master, and sued the defendant for assault and battery. The case was tried yesterday before Judge Spaulding and a jury. The plaintiff testified that on the 29th of November, at sea, the detendant, while plaintiff was on the poop deck, kicked him several times and kicked him from the poop to the main deck, badly injuring him so that ne bocame sick and was laid up until the arrival of the vessel at this port January 13, from the effects of such assaults. This was corrounted by two others of the seamen. The captain testified that he only pushed plaintiff because he was negligent and not quick enough, and did not kick him or otherwise hurt him, and that his sickness arose from disease. On the arrival of the vessel the captain procured from the others of the crew a certificate of his good character and recommending him as a good ship master. This was thought by counsel rather an extraordinary thing and reversing general usage. The jury found a verdict for plaintiff for $125$ and the Court granted an allowance of $25$ and toosts. an allowance of $25 and costs.

Anorews and Smith for plaintiff, and Benedict,
Tait and Benedict for defendant.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. LARCENY IN A SLEEPING CAR.

In this Court, before Judge Sutherland, yesterday morning William Brooks, alias Burke, pleaded guilty to grand larceny from the person The indictment charged that on the 18th of December he stole a gold watch and chain, valued at $100, from stole a gold watch and chain, valued at $100, from Thomas L. Goodwin. who occupied a sleeping berta on one of the cars of the Hudson River kaliroad. While the complainant was in the wasn room, after the arrival of the train at the Grand Central depot, the watch was taken from under his philow. An officer subsequently arrested Brooks, and a pawn ticket for the watch was found in his possestion. The Judge said that the prisoner was a professional thief, and sentenced him to the State Prison for four years.

NO EVIDENCE OF GUILT. Isaac Harris, a genteel looking colored man, was larceny from a dwelling house. The proof was that he was lound by a servant in the dining room that he was found by a servant in the dining room of Peter Sherman's house, No. 30 East Twenty-second street, on the 25th of December, and when asked what he was doing there replied that he was looking for a man named John Manning. There was no proof to show that the basement door was closed, and the Judge directed the jury to acquit Harris, on the ground that the evidence did not show he committed any act toward the perpetration of a larceny.

tion of a larceny. ALLEGED ROBBERY IN A CHATHAM STREET SALOON.

In the afternoon Frederick Hoypaer, the keeper dicted with William Benson, was placed on trial charged with robbery. Early in the month Henon, who was the barkeeper, was tried and convicted and remanded for sentence until the case of the proprietor of the place was disposed of by another jury. The complainant, William Haselhoff, a discharged soldier, claimed that on the 20th of December he was robbed of $140 by these men. Shortly after he went into the saloon the accused requested him to go into the back room, and when the barkeeper brought him a glass of wine he seized him by the arms, whereupon Hoypaer examined his pockers and finally succeeded in taking the money which was concealed beneath his undershirt. Mr. Kinizing, counsel for the accused, cross-examined the complainant at great length, and while bringing out the fact that he had been drinking a good many times that day ialied to shake the clear statement of the robbery and his positive identification of the queendant. victed and remanded for sentence until the case

TOMBS POLICE COURT. Before Judge Smith. OBSCENE PICTURES.

Last Saturday alternoon, Mr. Comstock, who has become iamous by his commendable efforts in the suppression of obscene literature, appeared before Judge Kilbreth and obtained warrants for the arrest of Joseph Hall, Horace Woods and Henry manufacture and sale of obscene pictures. The complainant having made a study of the habits of those engaged in the nefarious traffic, knew that Sanday afternoon would be the most opportune time to arrest them, as it is then that they do their printing. The parties mentioned in the complaint were charged with being interested in the production of vile pictures, which were manufactured at No. 139 Fulton street. Armed with the warrants, Mr. comstock, in company with Captain Leary and three other officers, on Sunday Biternoon, waited in the vicinity of the number mentioned above for the arrival of the parties sought. When they were seen to enter the officers closed around, and on going up stairs captured the men for when the warrants were issued. A camera and several photographic frames were seized, together with $1,500 worth of "stuff" ready for market. When arragned yesterday morning at the Tombs, the prisoners were remanded to await the action of the Grand Jury, which will undountedly find oills against them. those engaged in the nefarious traffic, knew that

DECISIONS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, 1875.

The Supreme Court rendered the following de-

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, 1875.

The Supreme Court rendered the following declaions to-day:—

No. 175. Haycraft vs. the United States—Appeal from the Court of Claims.—The question in chief in this case was whether one who gave aid and comport to the rebeil. on can, after two years from its suppression, maintain an action in the Court of Claims for the recovery of money in the Treasury arising from the sale of his cotton, selzed and soid under the Captured and Abantoned Property act. The Court hold the question to be one of jurisdiction; that the sovereign cannot be sued without his consent, and that as the law giving the right of action prescribed the time within which it might be brought (two years), and it was not brought within that time, the consert of the sovereign is considered to be no longer existing, and the action cannot be maintained. The Chief Justice delivered the opinion.

No. 176. Sons vs. The United States.—Same court and same judgment.

No. 491. Union Pacific Railroad Company vs. McShane, and

No. 492. McShane vs. Union Pacific Railroad Company—Appeals from the Circuit Court for the District of Kansas.—In this case the Court holds that the United States retain the legal title to the lauds of the company as security for the payment of the cost of surveying, &c., and the States cannot be permitted to defeat this right by a saie of the lands for taxes; but when the original grant has been perfected by the issue of the patent the right of the States to tax is perfected also, and may be exercised. Affirmed. Mr. Justice Milier delivered the opinion.

No. 125. Doe vs. Chuldress—Error to the Circuit Court for the Middle District of Tennessee.—In this case the Court holds that where the Chancery Court of Tennessee had jurisdiction of the subject of certain proceedings in a trachment, no defence being interposed by the assignee in bankruptcy, and no measures having been taken to arrest the proceedings of transfer them to the Bankrupt Court, and there being no frand alleged, a good tile was obtained by the pur value of the schooner. Mr. Justice Clinord delivered the opinion.

No. 486. Ochiltree vs. The lowa Railroad Contracting Company. Stockholders, &c.—Error to the Supreme Court of Missouri.—The lowa Company became a stockholder in the Missouri, lowa and Nebraska Company, after the repeal of the donole liability clause of the Missouri constitution, and the question was whether under these circumstances it was liable under that clause for debts owing by the corporation prior to the repeal. The decision is in the negative, and the judgment is affirmed. Mr. Justice Davis delivered the opinion.

peal. The decision is in the negative, and the judgment is affirmed. Mr. Justice Davis delivered the opinion.

No. 130. Longstreth, assignee in bankruptcy vs. Pennock et al, error to the Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.—In this case the defendants in error claimed for one year's rent out of the proceeds of a sale in bankruptcy, under the law of the State, they being entitled to distrain before the assignee took possession. The Court below sustained the claim, and the judgment is here affirmed as being within the equity of the State law. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion No. 136. Error to the supreme Court of Montana Territory.—In this case the question was whether a right to running waters on the public lands of the United States, for purposes of irrigation, can be acquired by prior appropriation as against parties not having any title against the government. This question was answered in the affirmative, the Court, holding that the right to the water by vitor This question was answered in the affirmative, the Court holding that the right to the water by prior appropriation, for any beneficial purpose, is entitled to protection, and that this right in respect to the public lands is recognized by the act of 1866. No. 129. Manger vs. Shirley.—Appeal from the Chrout Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee.—This was a proceeding to set aside a sale of the appelled's property made in his absonce from Tennessee during the war, upon the ground that the cause of action, which matured in a judgment against Shirley by publication of service, was fraudently asserted and had no shadow of foundation. The Court below sustained the plea and vacated the entire proceedings, and that decree is affirmed here. Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion. Rule 26 is amended as follows:—"If, after a cause has been passed under circumstances which do not place it at the foot of the docket, the parties shall desire to have it heard, they may file with the Clerk their joint request to that effect, and the cause shall then be by him reinstated for call ten cases after that under argument or next to be called at the end of the day the request is filed. If the parties will not unite in such a request either may move to take up the cause, and it shall then be assigned to such place upon the docket as the Court may direct. No supulation to pass a cause without placing it at the loot of the docket will be recognized as binding upon the Court. A cause can only be so passed upon application made and leave granted in open court."

LONDON MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT.

LOCAL TAXATION AND MANAGEMENT OF POOR FUNDS. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

On reading the letter of your London correspon dent in this day's issue, in which he has in the short compass of a letter given an admirable sketch of municipal government in London, it occurs to me that a few supplementary remarks are necessary to make his statements clear to New York readers. I was for some years a guardian of the poor for the large parish of St. Margaret's, Westminster, in which is situated the Houses of Parliament, Buckingham Palace, parts of the rich districts of Belgravia and South Kensington, together with some of the most wretched your correspondent says that each householder in St. Pancras has to pay "a total sum o: 2s. 3d. for terday, was tempted to steal two barrels of four which were exposed outside the store of Henry Utezmann, at No. 2,239 on that thoroughlare. Hey picked, and, depositing the barrels on his wagon, was about to drive away when Mr. Utezmann caught him. An officer was introduced to Otto, and in company the two went to the station house and Otto's arrival was noted on the biotter. The Judge at the Tombs held Mr. Quick, in default of $1,000 bail, to answer at the Court of General Sessions.

Beofine I should be understood that the percentiage is at a bout two-thirds of the rental or annual value, the usual custom is the late to the percentage is the tomoghate at a bout two-thirds of the rental or annual value, the usual custom is the late is usual custom is the property of the rental the haif year on every pound of valuation of his elections of officers to pass unnoticed, and the introduction of parochial matters at a meeting actilike the reading of the Riot act. I remember my own election. Having been solicited by some neighbors to take the office of Guardian of the Poor I consented. Notice of the election of myself and others was posted on large othis all over the parish, and smaller bills placed in every store. The election was to take place in a large school-room in which 600 people could have assembled. On the day in question I attended prepared with a neat speech, which I supposed I should be expected to address to the electors. The actual proceedings consisted in finding myself and three other candidates in the presence of the parish beadle and the election was over. For all the parishoners snew or cared the officers elected that day might have been unable to read or write, or equally unfit in other respects to discharge the duties in a proper manner. Yours, truly, NEW YORK, Jan. I7, 1875.

RACING IN CALIFORNIA.

CHINAMAN DEFEATS KATIE PEASE. [From the Alta Californian, Jan. 10.]

The continuous foggy weather and the quiet week in turf matters have had a tendency to sharpen the appetite of those who had become somewhat satisfied in their thirst for racing. The last event over the Fair Ground Course has been the principal topic and subject of comment during the interim, and up to the time of pool seiling lu the race free for all horses, three-fourths of a mile, single dash, over the Oakland Course, yesterday, for a purse of $1,000, to be divided so as to give the first horse $600, the second $250 and the third $150. The entries for which were Katie Pease, Chinaman, Jordan, Bullet Neck, Red Oak, Blanche Hull, Sorrel Ned and Lady Amanda, represented in their regular order by William Patrick, G. Van Gorden, William Lee, James Halsted, C. Hoffman, Wilbur Pierce, C. Stimpson and J. C.

In pool selling Katie Pease brought $100, Chinaman $50, Jordan $25 and the balance as a field

The weather was exceedingly foggy, but otherwise it was propitions for good time, and as the track was in splendid condition and the norses of high repute for a three-quarter mile dash, every one was expectant of a good and well contested race. When the horses were sent to the starting point the dense fog had settled down to a thickness that for a short time prevented the judges from seeing the starting flag. Just at that time an unusual patron of the ture; in the person of Mr. Jerry Ferry, Under Speriff of Alameda county, made his appearance on the track in ront of the judges' stand, with Mr. Haisted's horse Bullet Neck in hand, and under attachment for a dobt of $500, in favor of William Stackpole, late proprietor of the Golden Gate Track. This proceeding for a short time prevented the starting of the race, and caused some little excitement among the backers of the horse: but soon the debt was discharged by the payment of the amount in coin, which was obtained from Mr. Randiett, the proprietor, and with the clearing up of this little affair came the clearing up of the for also. By the time Builet Neck had returned to the starting place the fog had disappeared, so that the horses could be plainly seen in every manœuvre for the START, wise it was propitious for good time, and as the starting place the fog had disappeared, so that the horses could be plainly seen in every manœuvre for the start, in which as many as four false attempts were made before the word was given. The pole had been drawn by Katle Passe, with which advantage it was thought she would not lose the race; but when the tap-off was given she was not in as good motion and position as Sorrel Ned, Chinaman, Jordan and Builet Neck, who ran in the lead to the end of the far turn, on going round which Katle was running fifth and sixth, until in the homestretch, where she cut loose for Ned, who was then in the lead. Chinaman observed the movement of the favorite, and with a rapidity heretofore unequalled on any race course, or by any race horse, he took up the running with the mare and came up the stretch in less time than it can be told. At the drawgate Chinaman and Pease had passed all the others and were locked like a yoke of steers until just before going under the wire, when the little "jock" on Chinaman litted and rowelled his horse, to the advantage of a throatlatch only, at the finish. Red Oak had also done some fine running, and gained for himself the position of a good third. Mr. simpson's mare, Lady Amanda, got a very poor start, but maintaibed a good position at the outcome. Red Oak had the outside at the start, and taking his chances into consideration, his run was a good one.

At the concussion, after reports of patrols, weighing, &c., the judges announced Chinaman the winner of the race and first money. Katie Pease second and second money, Red Oak hird and third money. Time, 1:15½—which is the fastest time on record for a three-lourths dash with weights to role.
